About Us

Nestled amongst the scenic beauty of two acclaimed vineyards in the heart of the Hunter Valley, Bimbadgen Palmers Lane offers an enchanting backdrop for unforgettable weddings.

We specialise in creating dream weddings, blending our award-winning cuisine, exceptional wines, and flawless service to orchestrate an unforgettable experience. Panoramic vineyard vistas, gentle mountain surrounds, and the peaceful charm of this secluded setting, the location offers a naturally stunning canvas for your celebration.

As part of the wider Bimbadgen portfolio, including boutique accommodation at The Lane Retreat and a selection of premium dining and event venues, your wedding becomes more than just a day — it's an immersive Hunter Valley experience, crafted with ease and elegance from start to finish.

Our Executive Chef and team have created menus inspired by Esca Restaurant's reputation for outstanding regional food, paired perfectly with our award-winning wines. From your first site visit to the final farewell, our dedicated team will ensure every moment is beautifully delivered and truly memorable.

Location Spaces

Bimbadgen offers four stunning locations across our vineyard property.

Mountain View

Under the Morton Bay Fig Tree, with a mountain backdrop and views across the 50 year old vines, you will feel truly inspired for a rural celebration. The sheer vastness of the property makes you truly feel at one with nature.

Pergola

The perfect spot to say ‘I do’, with vineyard views. A picturesque all-weather option perfect for rain, hail or sunshine.

Pontoon

A location just down the hill from the reception space, it offers the ease of flowing straight into celebration mode with your guests.

Barn Doors

With a grand walk down our stone steps, in a courtyard framced by hedges, this space is made for cocktail hour.

Alternatively, we can provide you with a list of chapels and historical churches in the region.

Reception

Secluded among acres of flourishing vines, Palmers Lane offers a romantic and intimate setting that feels worlds away. This charming vineyard estate blends rustic elegance with natural beauty, creating the perfect backdrop for your special day.

Our purpose-built reception venue features soaring ceilings with exposed timber beams, providing a beautiful canvas for floral installations and bespoke styling.

Whether you choose to celebrate indoors surrounded by warmth and character, or under the stars with a magical alfresco dinner lit by festoon lights, Palmers Lane delivers a uniquely atmospheric experience that's effortlessly elegant and undeniably memorable.

Get Ready

At The Lane Retreat, we understand that the journey to your wedding day is just as meaningful as the celebration itself. That's why we offer our exclusive bridal preparation suite — a private, elegant space where the morning of your wedding feels just as special as the moments to follow.

Begin your day in comfort and style with a light breakfast, thoughtfully delivered to your studio, ensuring you and your bridal party are nourished and ready for the festivities ahead. The same attentive service can also be extended to the groom and his groomsmen, so both parties can prepare in relaxed, refined surroundings.

Set against the serene backdrop of The Lane Retreat's vineyard and mountain views, our premium studios provide the perfect setting for you and your closest friends to relax, prepare, and savour the excitement of this once-in-a-lifetime occasion.

The Sister Properties

Character-filled and charming, this chic country alfresco boutique space nestled among the vines offers a warm and relaxed atmosphere for an intimate or large scale gathering with close friends and family.

Located at Bimbadgen Estate, Esca is an elegant and intimate setting with a modern edge. Perfect for smaller weddings or stylish elopements, Esca offers exceptional dining with breathtaking views over the valley.
